

- Continues the investments into our nation's infrastructure
 - $2B for highway grants
 - $2B for Capital Investment Grants
 - $1B for the Department of Transportation's BUILD grant program
 - $916M for investments into our airports and transit systems
 - $230M for seaports, the third year in a row I have been able to secure this funding
- Provides housing opportunities to our most vulnerable populations
 - $25.77B in public housing vouchers
 - $3.475B for Community Development Block Grants
 - $3B for Homeless Assistance Grants
 - $1.35B for the HOME Investment Partnerships Program
 - $1.5B for housing for persons living with HIV/AIDS, the elderly, and persons with disabilities
 - $165M for Neighborworks, helping local communities' partner with the public and private sector to provide housing
- Ensures the protection of our environment
 - $250M for continued Everglades Restoration
 - $31.88M for the National Estuary Program, which the Rookery Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve will directly benefit from
 - $24.5M for NOAA's Harmful Algal Blooms research program, including up to $1M for a harmful algal bloom test bed in the Gulf of Mexico
 - $6M for the South Florida Geographic Program, which monitors coral health and enhances water quality
 - $65M for the EPA's Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act program, which Miami-Dade County recently received money from to upgrade and modernize its wastewater treatment facilities
- Bolsters our Defense capabilities and provides for our servicemen and women
 - $696B in funding for the Department of Defense
 - $46.1M increase for SOUTHCOM and counter-narcotics activity
 - Local businesses in FL-25 with proven products are expected to compete for:
 - $10M increase in Army procurement for the Enhanced Ballistic Armor Protection System
 - $15M increase in Army research for the Advanced Helicopter Seating System
 - $2M increase in Army research for Helicopter Emergency Oil Systems
 - Provides funding needed to continue to rebuild the military after years of neglect by the Obama Administration
 - Funds a 3% military pay raise, continues to restore readiness, and provides our warfighters the housing, health care, and resources they need to defend our country
 - $40 million provided for peer-reviewed spinal cord research to help improve the lives of military members and their caregivers, families, and the public
- Ensures the safety of our schools
 - $361 million through programs administered by the DOJ
 - Of this, $132 million for the STOP School Violence Act grant program which includes a carveout of $53 million for school hardening measures administered by the Community Oriented Policing Services
 - $288.2 million through various grant programs under HHS
 - $106 million for School Safety National Activities through the Department of Education
 - Language allowing Urban Areas Security Initiative (UASI) and State Homeland Security Grants to be used for school safety

- Supports democracy abroad and our closest allies, and counters Russian and Chinese aggression
 - $2.4B for democracy programs, to strengthen democracy abroad
 - $33M for democracy programs in Venezuela
 - $20M for democracy programs in Cuba
 - $10M for democracy programs in Nicaragua
 - An additional $3.3B for Israel, for military assistance fulfilling U.S.-Israel Memorandum of Understanding
 - $505.928M for Central America, including funds to combat drug trafficking and funds for programs in the Northern Triangle to implement Sexual and Gender-Based Violence prevention strategies
 - $461.375M for Colombia, including assistance to communities impacted by the refugee crisis
 - More than $1.7 billion in migration and refugee assistance
 - $300M for the National Endowment for Democracy
 - $300M for the Countering Chinese Influence Fund
 - $290M for the Countering Russian Influence Fund
 - $4.5M for the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom
- Provides for our farmers and growers
 - $81M for citrus greening activities and multi-agency coordination efforts
 - $3.4B in critical agriculture research
 - $38.1B in loans for rural housing, rural utilities, and rural businesses
 - $3.9B for rural development programs which assists in building sustainable rural infrastructure
 - $1.5B to support those affected by hurricanes, floods, drought, and other natural disasters
- $42.9B for the National Institute of Health to ensure America continues to lead in basic science research and advance biomedical research
- Continuing the fight against the opioid epidemic
 - $1.5B for State Targeted Response to Opioid Crisis Grants
 - $4 million for Comprehensive Opioid Recovery Centers
- $10M for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Infectious Diseases Rapid Response Reserve Fund, an account I have long supported and fought for
- $515M for the Payment in Lieu of Taxes program, of which Collier county is the largest recipient in the state of Florida
- $290M for High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas, which includes Miami-Dade and Collier counties
- Provides $22B for Pell Grants, and increases the maximum award to $6,495
- Language directing $5M to support the establishment of partnerships between VA hospitals and NCI-designated facilities, such as Moffitt Cancer Center, that allow for Veterans to access cancer clinical trials at VA health centers
- Language directing the VA to continue its effort to fund and conduct research that will design and develop technology to offset the effects of limb amputation, orthopedic injury and disease, neuropathic pain and other neurodegenerative diseases by partnering with colleges and universities, like Florida International University.

- $240M for four Coast Guard Fast Response Cutters
- $3.3B for FEMA grant programs to help states and localities prepare for, mitigate, and respond to disasters
- $190M for Floodplain Management and Mapping under FEMA
- Funding and report language to support operational expenses for centers that provide assistance to those with severe mental health needs who are at risk of recidivism, such as the Mental Health Diversion Facility in Miami-Dade currently under construction
- $5 million for Chronic Fatigue Syndrome in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and report language encouraging the NIH to allocate resources to better understand this illness
- $2.4 billion for the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program
- Maintains ALL pro-life protections, and does not direct any funding to Planned Parenthood
- Legislative Priorities I have long supported included in this legislation
 - WRDA Reauthorization, which includes my provision renaming the Moore Haven Lock and Dam after fallen Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission Officer Julian Keen, Jr.
 - Extends important public health programs for three years, including community health centers
 - Supports Front Line Health Care Providers by injecting billions of dollars into Medicare physician pay in 2021 and heading off payment cuts due to be enacted next year
 - Includes a reauthorization of our Intelligence programs
 - Includes a bipartisan agreement to reform aircraft certification processes
 - Expands the development and commercialization of zero-emissions, advanced nuclear technologies